From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—Passed west, H. B. Holt, Portland.

The Supervisors have directed a searching investigation into the circumstances of the great fire on Saturday night, and have also ordered 5,000 feet of new carbolized hose on record, mendation of the Board of Underwriters, being satisfied of the comparative worthlessness of the old style of leather hose.

The different local insurance companies lost by the great fire as follows: Pacific $40,000, Union $20,000, Home Mutual $20,000, Fireman's Fund $5,000, Occidental $10,000, California $15,000, People's $20,000. The losses of Eastern companies are not yet made public.

The European agencies lose as follows: Foreign Officers' Underwriters Agency $80,000, London, Liverpool and Globe $40,000, Hamburg and Bremen $100,000, Imperial (approximate) $50,000, Royal $40,000. Redington, Hostetter and Co. will save goods in a damaged condition worth about $200,000, so that their entire loss above insurance will not exceed $125,000.

The excitement in the stock market reminds one of the flush times when the Comstock stocks first began to be lively dealt in.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Linn County Fair.

[Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.]

ALBANY, Sept. 26, 1871.

Heavy rains have fallen during the day, in consequence of which the entries up to this evening have been comparatively few. The attendance of visitors, however, is fair, and the receipts are larger than on the opening day last year.

The running race this afternoon, mile heat, for two year olds, was won by Tennant's "Novice"—time, 2:05.

Buick Pomeroy is not to be here, and the Annual Address will be delivered on Wednesday by D. W. Vancleve, Esq.

Amusements on the ground are plenty.

THE TERRITORIES.

For hauling wheat from Walla Walla to Wallula, thirty miles, teamsters are now getting ten dollars a ton, or thirty cents a bushel.

The vote in Walla Walla county on the railroad subsidy stood thus: For subsidy, 156; against subsidy, 378. Majority against, 18.

An Idaho paper reminds Miss Anthony that the Legislature of that Territory at the last session came within one vote of passing a Woman Suffrage bill, and hopes that she (Miss Anthony) will not forget that part of the suffrage vineyard.

The Boise Statesman learns that surveys are now being prosecuted preparatory to commencing operations on the bed rock flume in Moore's creek, near Idaho City. This is a great enterprise, and it is expected to produce great quantities of gold.

Two blacksmiths, Dougherty and Atkinson, at the crossing of the Payette in Idaho, got into a row the other day, when the former seized a shotgun and fired at the latter, blowing the roof off his hat. Atkinson in turn emptied his revolver at Dougherty, but every shot missed. At this point the narrative ends, but it is probable that the combatants rushed into each other's arms and exchanged congratulations on their mutual safety.

A hitherto unknown sunken rock has been discovered and located by the coast survey in the Strait of Fuca, within two miles of Point Partridge. The following magnetic bearings and distances are given to locate this new danger: From Smith's Island Light House it bears S. S. E., distant 3.8 miles. From Admiralty Head Light House it bears W. by N. ½ N., distant 8.7 miles. From Point Wilson it bears N. W. ½ W., distant 7.8 miles. From New Dungeness Light House it bears N. E., distant 11.5 miles.

While General Crook is at work in Arizona trying to conquer a peace with the Indians there, who are notoriously the most savage and hostile in the United States, the Indian Peace Commissioner is roving through the Territory manufacturing about injustice to the "noble red man," and endeavoring to induce General Crook to desist. It is observable, however, that the Peace Commissioner usually takes care to have an armed guard along, and is yet too prudent to throw itself on the generosity of the "noble savage."

CALIFORNIA ITEMS.

The next stated session of the Synod of the Pacific, the highest representative of the Presbyterian Church, will be held at Oakland, commencing on Tuesday, October 3d.

The California Steam Navigation Company paid a dividend for August of 16 per cent., which aggregated $400,000. This was the third assignment of assets in closing up the change of ownership.

The importance of a very few votes in an election is noted in Tulare county, where the Democratic Assemblyman is elected by two votes, and in Santa Cruz and Monterey counties, where the Democratic Senator has nine majority.

According to the San Francisco Bulletin there are twenty-six boot and shoe factories in operation in that city, twenty of which are owned by white men and six by Chinese. In addition to these, there are sixteen slipper factories, fifteen owned by Chinese and one by a white man. There are employed, in small shops and factories, 1,400 white men, 262 women, 40 boys and 862 Chinese, a total of 2,564 persons. The number of pairs of boots, shoes and slippers made during the year is about 980,000, and their value about $3,300,000, of which 20 per cent. is paid for labor.

FOREIGN NOTES.

It is announced that the Prussian Government is considering the appointment of a general commission for the supervision of all the railways throughout the country. This step is taken on account of the frequent accidents which have recently occurred.

A remarkable feat in travelling is mentioned by a London correspondent. A gentleman reached Liverpool on the 19th ult., who had left San Francisco on the 2d. He had made the whole journey in exactly seventeen days. There is certainly nothing like this on record.

The cost of building the Mont Cenis tunnel, all expenses included, amounts to 25,600,000 francs. Of this sum, France, according to certain agreements and stipulations, will have to pay 25,500,000 francs, the rest, something less than 20,000,000 francs, will be paid by Italy.

Another step toward Teutonizing Alsace has been taken by Prussia, in an order regulating the use of French in the public schools of Strasburg and other towns. The order directs that the public schools may retain the use of the French language temporarily in the upper classes, but German only will be permitted to be used for the lower forms.

Tammany Lyrics.

MAIL TO CONNOLLY.

The voucher, Dick, was quite a shameless deed.
Blunders in politics are crimes, you know;
So be resigned, and save poor me and Tweed.

CONNOLLY TO HALL.

That voucher business as you say is queer,
But surely Ingham am not suspected.
Besides, dear Oakey, just look here
If I resign, we'll all be soon detected.

COLFAX FOR GRANT.—A Chicago dispatch of September 1st, says:

Vice President Colfax was interviewed on Monday at St. Paul regarding the next Presidential canvass. He said he was for Grant against the field, openly and above board. The reporter having alluded to a recent statement that the Greely-Fenton wing of the Republican party in New York were intending to bring him forward as a candidate, Mr. Colfax responded as follows:

There is nothing in it. I have no communication with them, and am for Grant unqualifiedly. People laugh at me and do not believe me. I say I am determined to retire to private life, and I have ceased repeating it; but it is true nevertheless. I have had all of public life I desire. When I got better of my illness in Washington, I found I needed rest and quiet, and came here to secure it. I feel a great deal better than when I came, and greatly gratified at the magnificent country I have seen.

OREGON.

The Salem Sunday Schools are to hold a monthly "Institute" for mutual improvement and encouragement.

A Southern Oregon paper says that 50,000 acres of swamp lands have been "selected" on that region. Whew! What grabbing.

In Union county wheat is selling at about 35 cents per bushel; in Grant county at even lower prices. Transportation is certainly wanted.

The Statesman has this: The man Lerwell, of French Prairie, who was convicted of beating his two sisters unmercifully, has been fined forty dollars. The relative gradation of crime in this county is well preserved, for it costs more to shoot a man than it does to beat, choke, and gouge two women. We turn the matter over to the woman's organ to have the matter discussed to advantage.

A Jackson county girl last week absconded on her wedding day, just about ten minutes before the ceremony was to come off. The guests were all on hand, the minister was there, and the license was ready. The lover is disconsolate, but he will yet realize, no doubt, that he has met with a piece of good luck. The girl's departure will save the expense and trouble of a divorce. It is said she came to Portland with her brother.

The Former has from Yaquina Bay a branch of wheat heads, as a sample of what can be done in the way of growing that grain on the Yaquina bottom lands. It has been reported that wheat will not ripen over there, but the specimens clearly disprove that statement. The field from which this sample was taken contained only three or four acres, and yielded exactly fifty bushels to the acre, of as large, plump, fine looking wheat as is usually found in Oregon. It was sown last March.

This shot is from the Jacksonville Times (Democratic): It is suggested by a friend, at our elbow that the reason His Excellency, Gov. Grover, paid so much respect to the demands of the Jackson county holders, in regard to the appointment of County Judge, is that he knows how it is himself. Old Democrats will remember when Gov. Grover led a band of holders from the Democratic State Convention, held at Eugene City on the 4th day of November, 1859, which was presided over by the late Hon. Delazon Smith. Indeed, Gov. [illegible] you know how it is yourself.

The Jacksonville Times (Democratic) is run by one of the first water. It makes an enormous display of cannon, flags and immense headlines over what does the reader suppose? The great Democratic victory in New Mexico! The editor says: "We have lost California and Montana, but have captured New Mexico to work in double harness with Kentucky. Now Mexico has no representatives in the Senate and none in the House, while California has. Nevertheless, under the present [illegible] we don't propose to undervalue or overestimate like the New Mexico." There is a great deal of humorous talent employed on the Times.

CURRENT NOTES.

In two years the Union Pacific Railway has sold 449,000 acres of farming lands for the sum of $1,900,000.

Charles Scribner, head of the great publishing and book-selling house in New York, died a short time ago at Lucerne, Switzerland.

A few nights ago an immense bonfire was kindled on Mount Washington, which was visible over a large part of New England.

Steamers now run regularly between ports in Texas and the cities of New York and Philadelphia, carrying cargoes of fresh beef, secured in refrigerators.

Woodell Phillips has found something to commend. It is the New Jersey Railroad, which during the last thirty-seven years has transported over seventy millions of passengers, without loss of life or limb to any one inside the cars.

The latest sensation is a tidal wave, predicted, it is said, by Agassiz, which will sweep fifty feet in height from Cape Hatteras to Bahia. New Orleans is to be submerged, and all the low South American coast. The 5th or 6th of October is the time.

Nebraska is exultant. "The Great American Desert," which, according to legend and erroneous present opinions cannot raise fruit, took the field against the Union in the pomological exhibition at Richmond, and bore off the palm. It took the first premium for the best collection of fruits, and is naturally proud as a hen with a new brood of chicks.

The total number of physicians who paid taxes to the Government for the year ending April 30, 1871, was 49,778. Of these there were regular or allopathic, 30,070; homœopathic, 2,981; hydropathic, 133; eclectic, 2,860; miscellaneous, or not classified, 4,770. These figures show that the number engaged in the profession has been over estimated. The usual guess at the number of homœopaths has been 10,000. It is believed that the Government list is very full and accurate, as it is not easy for a doctor to keep out of the way of the assessor.

The deaths of the year 1870 in some of the large cities are given in the St. Louis Board of Health report. New York, with a population of 927,430, had 27,175 deaths, or 29.3 to each 1,000; Philadelphia, 657,279, had 16,750 deaths, or 25.5 to each 1,000; St. Louis, 312,903, had 6,670 deaths, or 21.3 to each 1,000; Chicago, numbering 299,370, had 7,342 deaths, or 24.5 to each 1,000; Baltimore, 262,597, had 7,262 deaths, or 27.6 to each 1,000; Boston, 253,984, had 6,095 deaths, or 24 to each 1,000; San Francisco, 150,361, had 3,351 deaths, or 22.3 to each 1,000.

POLITICAL NOTES.

California will next year be entitled to at least six Presidential electors, Nevada three, and Oregon three, making twelve from the Pacific States.

The New York Tribune of the 14th inst., has advices from New Mexico which contradict the reports that the Democrats have carried that Territory.

The election in Colorado has gone Republican by an increased majority. Last election the majority for delegate was 1,302. The Legislature is almost unanimously Republican.

"Boss" Tweed holds twenty lucrative offices in New York, and has made, after a few years' leadership in Tammany, the modest fortune of $26,000,000. The New York Herald demands that he shall resign at least nineteen of his offices at once.

It is boasted that a considerable part of the colored men in San Francisco voted the Democratic ticket, and yet the Democratic party thus aided and recruited by "negro suffrage," lost the State of California, lost the Governor, Legislature, members of Congress, and failed to gain a Senator of the United States.

The Oregon Herald observes that "there never was a time in any former period of our history when there was anything like a fifteenth part of the 'official stealing' that exists now." We are sorry to say that the recent astounding developments of official stealing in New York compel us to believe that this statement is but too true.

The New York Tribune, in speaking of the present course of Mayor Hall, says that that functionary is trying to save himself by sacrificing Connolly and some of his other confederates, like the robber who trusted the custody of his plunder to one of his pals, so that if they were overtaken the said plunder might not be found on his own person.

Political Condition of France.

The Assembly travels in circles—without coming to an end at any point without adding beyond the provisional. Worst of all, it has much [illegible] history, and [illegible] questions which are [illegible] ago. Here we find [illegible] and quarrels over the question of the executive powers, or over the elementary details of the [illegible], and the whole subject can be found dispersed in the [illegible] and must comprehensive manner in the debates of the Virgilio Convention. A Very Singular Democratic Platform.

It is curious to observe that at the very moment when Democratic papers here are crying so lustily that the California election has utterly killed the "new departure," the New Jersey Democracy, as represented in their Convention, frame and adopt an out-and-out "new departure" platform. This, it may be supposed, is another proof of the statement that came the other day from a Democratic source, to the effect that that party "has principles and a philosophy." Here, we have been listening for years to learned dissertations on the "new departure," and the East this same new departure is still said to contain the sum total of Democratic principles, and is believed to be alive and in a healthy condition. On the 13th inst., one week after the "new departure" was killed (according to our oracles) by the California election, the New Jersey Democracy adopted a platform which goes even further in accepting the villainous Constitutional Amendments than even the California platform went. In short, in New Jersey these amendments are "recognized" as part of the organic law, and not as open political questions of the day.

In this New Jersey platform the old Democratic doctrines of State rights are also put aside, and Jefferson's theories of the origin and nature of the Government, which have been accepted as Democratic gospel for seventy years, are utterly repudiated. The New Jersey Democracy now say that the Government of the United States "is founded upon the adoption by the people" —(Democrats have always held that it was a mere treaty between the States), and created direct relations between it and all its subjects. Shade of State-sovereignty Democracy, what a position for men professing to be Democrats! To talk about "subjects"! And to say, too, that the General Government holds direct relations with its "subjects"—how curiously it sounds in the Sixties! Here is independence, indeed.

But even this is not all. On this platform the Democrats of New Jersey have nominated Joel Parker as their candidate for Governor, who in 1863-64 was Governor of the State and so good a war Governor that the peace Democracy hung him in effigy,—so terribly were their souls harrowed by the outrages perpetrated on Jeffersonian principles in the prosecution of the war in defiance of State rights and established Democratic canons, and by Gov. Parker's approval of those anti-Democratic measures.

We are curious to see how far the State anti-departure organs will predict for this New Jersey platform.

Foreign Trade of the United States.

An abstract of the report of the Bureau of Statistics, now before us, shows some interesting facts concerning our foreign trade for the year ending June 30, 1871, and compares it with the year preceding. Our exports, it seems, for the last year have in the total exceeded the imports by a little over ten thousand dollars. The year before, the imports amounted to almost eleven and a half millions more than the exports. This is due to the increase of specie exports, those having risen from a total of fifty-seven millions to the sum of ninety-eight millions. Duties were paid on all but about forty-three millions. The largest free importation was nineteen millions of gold coin. Of other items demanding duty it is curious that the largest was that of brown sugar, which reached sixty-one millions. The next in order come thirty millions of coffee, and nearly the same sum for manufactured cotton. Of exported goods half the value, nearly, was in raw cotton, two hundred and [illegible] millions; then breadstuffs to the amount of seventy-nine millions, fifty-eight millions of coin, and, thirty-four of refined petroleum. Of this whole vast amount of exports, $519,669,750, only $169,285,716, a little [illegible] went in American bottoms. Though the balance is in our favor, it is [illegible] a larger quantity of foreign goods in United States warehouses.

A Question or Two.

Most of the things we have said about Jefferson are proven, as we have shown, by his own writings. The Herald calls these things "calumnies."

Not intending to dwell on this subject at this time, we simply propose a question or two, viz:

Is it a "calumny" to say that Jefferson originated and drew up the resolutions of '98, and foisted them on the country as an interpretation of our system of Government?

Is it a "calumny" to say that these doctrines of Jefferson's gave the Southern Democracy their excuse for secession and rebellion?

When the Herald replies to these questions it may be in order for us to say something more.

To show the swindling nature of the act to support mendicant newspapers, it is only necessary to refer to [illegible] organs of the State, and notably the one in this city, are printing large numbers of this class of advertisements, charging therefor from two to five times as much as they are able to get for usual business advertising. Of course they are entitled to supporters and defenders of the law which authorizes them to make these excessive charges and compels people to pay them.

Agitated as the whole Democratic party is about the "new departure," the paper which aspires to be the chief organ of Oregon Democracy, as far has only one word to say on the subject. Evidently it dares not touch a subject on which its party entertains so great a difference of opinion. All the other Democratic papers of the State speak out on the subject in terms, reserving that the "chief organ" is clearly afraid. Awkward fix for a "leading" journal!

Democratic organs are trying to make a great deal out of the Hodge defalcation. It is bad, enough, to be sure, but the sum made away with by Hodge is no more than New York city was swindled out of in the single article of carts, and would not pay for two hours' plowing on the New Court House.

Of the [illegible] advertisements, its [illegible] one in the week, as much as they get for other advertisements, inserted six days in the week. Of such is the act to "protect" litigants. The "protected" are not a little restive under it.

Basques have entirely superseded round waists, and it is one of the plaited house waists and these made up in heavier material, are frequently worn to a basque, the plaits being let loose below the waist and over instead of under the skirt.

The "Ireland" Forgeries of Shakespeare.

In 1795 it was announced that many important relics of Shakespeare had been discovered by a young clerk named Ireland, including a new play entitled "Vortigern." The story was credited, and "Vortigern" was produced by Sheridan at Drury Lane. That awful poet, Sir James Bland Burgess, wrote the prologue. On the 2d of April, 1796, the rush of Shakespearians were so tremendous that not more than two or three women could force their way into the Drury Lane pit. It must be confessed, however, that all the deference to the "Swan," that the play, on nearer acquaintance, was by no means equal to "Cymbeline."

John Kemble, Bensley, Charles Kemble, King, Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Jordan did their best, but it was from the first too evidently an up-hill game. Vortigern murdered Constantius, became King of Britain, invited over the Saxons, defeated the Scots, fell in love with Rowena, and was fairly on his way to his last place of refuge in Cæsar's Tower after Rowena had poisoned herself, when the public would not have it—not another crumb of it—though there were yards more of flatulent blank verse to spout, and Aurelius had still to fight the fateful Vortigern, knock him down, take his crown, and spare his life. At the perhaps rather unfortunate line:

> And when this solemn mockery is o'er,

which Kemble, being interrupted by a wolfish howl of vexation, contempt, and disappointment, somewhat maliciously repeated twice over, the house rose, and in a Niagara of indignation, swept the very early play of Shakespeare into everlasting forgetfulness. Immediately after this lamentable failure, when the Ireland family had shrunk from the theater, hot, astonished and angry, dozens of critics detected in "Vortigern" plagiarisms from Shakspeare, and one keen eye found an allusion to "Bishop Bonner," which, to say the least, was a ridiculous anachronism.

But the popular verdict did not shake the belief of Ireland's more generous friends, for Chalmers soon after published a defence eleven hundred pages long, and Ireland pere wrote a vindication of his own conduct in an angry and contemptuous reply to that "usurper, dictator," and presumptuous, arrogant critic, Malone. Unfortunately the very month the father's pamphlet appeared, one written by the son was also printed by Debrett (opposite Burlington House, Piccadilly), acknowledging with shameless frankness, every one of the extraordinary Shakespearian papers to be mere forgeries of his own.

Young Ireland had been well educated (according to his own account, at Kensington, Ealing, and Soho Square schools, afterwards at Amiens, and a college at Ems, in Normandy, and at sixteen had been articled to a lawyer of eminence in New Inn). The mistaken and vain lad, fond of books and accustomed to old plays, one day took it into his head that if he could pass off some documents of his own writing for Shakespeare's, it would secure him attention, delight his father, and show how easily credulous antiquaries could be gulled. Macpherson had led to Chatterton, Chatterton led to Ireland. Purchasing a thin quarto tract of the time of Elizabeth, with her arms on the cover, the lawyer's clerk eager for this spurious kind of fame, wrote a letter in Elizabethan hand, supposed to be a letter presenting the book to the Queen. This letter his father at once pronounced to be genuine. The next day, on his way home, Ireland called on a bookbinder named Laurie, in New Inn passage, and showing him the letter, told him the story. A young man in the shop then showed him how to make ink look old by stirring it with some acid and a liquid used in marbling book covers, and afterwards, turning it brown at the fire. In the next long vacation a visit to Stratford-upon-Avon further inflamed the young forger's mind, for at Clapton House the owner told him that a few weeks before, in clearing out a lumber room to serve as an aviary for young partridges, he had found a whole basketful of old deeds and papers, rotten as tinder, but many of them bearing the signature of Shakespeare, and which he had burnt as mere litter and rubbish. On Ireland's return to New Inn, being left alone in chambers, he carried his impostures further, at first for mere frolic, keeping by him copies of the poet's signature from Steven's Shakespeare. The wording of the sham deeds he took from an old Jacobean law paper. Here he had resolved to stop, but his first lies dragged him further down. His father insisted that he knew of more treasures, so did his dupes, and his own vanity and secretiveness urged him on. The paper he first used consisted of blank sheets torn from old books, but after a time, hearing the jug spoken of as the prevalent Elizabethan water-mark, he selected sheets bearing that mark. Most of the old paper he purchased of Verey, a bookseller in Great May's buildings, Saint Martin's lane. Talbot became Ireland's accomplice, the forger tells us, by mere accident. He was also a clerk in New Inn, but at another lawyer's, and his articles had just expired. He had often seen Ireland imitate old hand writings, and at once told him that the first Shaksperian deed was not original. Ireland firmly denied the charge, but, unfortunately, a few days after, Talbot, always on the watch, stole in and caught him writing a sham Shaksperian document. No longer able to deny the fact, Ireland forced him to secrecy, fearing the anger of his father, and Talbot, entering into the scheme, promised never to betray him.

Wants Heligoland.

The Leipzig Gazette has a lengthy demand for the "restoration" of Heligoland to Germany. Here is a summary of its article:

England is reminded that she, first seized the island from Denmark, and not Germany, by the way, in order to make it a smuggling depot for British goods at the time (1807) when the Berlin decrees of the preceding year allowed no other inlet for our manufactures, except by the devious method of contraband. It is added that England was enabled to "withhold" the island from Germany in 1815, solely because Germany was not then united, and was therefore "the Power of the first order," which it pleased to become. During the recent German war, the French were unable to maintain their blockade of the German coast, mainly, according to the Leipzig Gazette, through the circumstance that Heligoland was not German territory. It would have been strongly fortified, and the strong fortifications would have prevented French war vessels from anchoring under the lee of the island, and French coal ships from enjoying a similar refuge. Heligoland, the Leipzig journal insists, is a sentinel at the embouchures of the Elbe, the Weser, and the Jahde, the three all important rivers for commercial or military purposes of the northwest of Germany, and it becomes neither German safety nor German honor to allow a foreign Power to remain in such a position. The Leipzig Gazette adds that it would not recommend an immediate declaration of war against England for the possession of the few square feet of ocean rock. It designs, in the first place, that the Reichstag should make known by a unanimous vote that Heligoland was indispensable to Germany, when it is doubtful not that at the voice of that august assembly the pretensions of England for an unalienable portion of the Fatherland would be certain to disappear."

How to do it Shirt Bosoms.—We have often heard ladies express a desire to know by what process the fine gloss observed on new linens, shirt bosoms, etc., is produced. In order to gratify them, we subjoin the following recipe for making gum arabic starch: Take two ounces of gum arabic powder, put it into a pitcher, and pour on it a pint of boiling water (according to the degree of strength you desire), and then, having covered it, let it set all night. In the morning pour it carefully from the dregs into a clean bottle, cork it, and keep it for use. A tablespoonful of gum water, stirred in a pint of starch that has been made in the usual manner, will give to lawns, (either white or printed) a look of newness when nothing else can restore them after washing. It is also good (much diluted) for thin white muslin and bobinet.

As an example of how fortunes have been made in Chicago through real estate, the following is not a bad illustration: Some four years ago a German milk seller thought he would move somewhere out of the city, and enjoy life and prosecute the production of milk by himself. So looking around to find a place where no one else was, he fixed upon a couple of acres of land, which now fronts on South Park, at Fifty-first street, and gave for the two acres $500. The milkman thought the owner of the land was an extortionate individual, but the same milkman sold his two acres last week for $26,400; or $100 per front foot; the lots being 250 feet deep.

TO HOUSE BUILDERS & PAINTERS

"AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINTS."

THESE PAINTS ARE SO WELL KNOWN throughout the Atlantic States and their reputation so abundantly established for

Beauty, Permanence and Economy

That we can confidently recommend and guarantee as entire satisfaction to their use.

THEIR COST is less than pure Lead, and covers one-fifth more surface, making them the most economical Paints in the market.

THEIR DURABILITY is unquestioned. They dry hard with a smooth and glossy surface and will not chalk, crack or peel off.

THEIR ADAPTABILITY.—They are already mixed and ready for use, and require no oil, turpentine or dryers. Are sold of any desired shade, by the gallon only.

Testimonials.

Gen. James S. Negley, M. C., Pittsburg, Pa., writes Nov. 10, '70: "I have no hesitation in recommending the 'Averill Chemical Paints' to those in want of cheapness and durability. It weathers our smoky atmosphere better than any Paints I have tested. The colors are rich and variable. Altogether I find them the CHEAPEST AND BEST."

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA CUSTOM HOUSE.—It looks as fresh and glossy as when first applied. I do not believe any LEAD AND OIL COULD EQUAL IT.

WM. P. DOCKERY.

I have carefully compared the cost and merits of the Averill Paints with White Lead and Oil and find 99 cents per gallon in favor of the former.

CHINAMAN SHOT WHILE RESISTING AN ARREST.—About 5 o'clock last evening the report reached us of a shooting affair on Alder street. Proceeding to the place, we found a number of Chinamen in a terrible state of excitement, and everything in a terrible confusion. We found that a Chinaman had been shot and killed. Judge Matthews gave us his name as Lee Sue. The Chinamen said a constable had done the shooting. By further inquiry we found the facts to be as follows: Yesterday a writ of habeas corpus had been issued by Judge Deady, commanding Lee Yon (probably the same as Lee Sue, the man killed) to produce the body of a Chinawoman named Yon Lee, at 10 o'clock this A. M. to-day, and show why she was restrained of her personal liberty. To-day the day the party who had sued out the writ of habeas corpus, filed an affidavit before Judge Deady, upon which the latter issued a warrant commanding Marshal Thos. G. Young to seize the woman, Yon Que, and keep her in custody until the hour for the return to the habeas corpus. To the execution of this duty Mr. Young with Jas. Allen, Deputy Marshal, went to the place where the woman was kept in confinement and demanded her release. He served the warrant upon Lee Yon (or Lee Sue) who refused to obey it. Mr. Young directed Allen to keep guard at the front door, permitting nobody to pass in or out. He then, with several Chinamen then in the room, went to Yon Que, seized her, found the woman resisting, and took her into custody. As he reached the front room he was attacked by three or four of the Chinamen, prominent among whom was Lee Yon. The attack and struggle for the possession of the woman continued for some time; at length Mr. Young discovered that two or three powerful Chinamen had pinioned Mr. Allen from behind, him, and at this moment Lee Sue and two or three others made a flash and with a pistol and fired the fatal shot, killing Lee Yon. The officers fell away with the woman, a moment afterward, the Chinamen being thrown into consternation and disorder by the fall of Lee Yon. An inquest was held on the body of the Chinaman and the following is the verdict of the jury:

CHINAMAN SHOT WHILE RESISTING AN ARREST.—About 6 o'clock last evening the report reached us of a shooting affair on Alder street. Proceeding to the place, we found a number of Chinamen in a great state of excitement, and everything in confusion. We found that a Chinaman, said to be a partner in the house of Wa Kee & Co., had been shot and killed. Judge McCoy gave us his name as Lee Sue. The Chinamen said a constable had done the shooting. Upon further inquiry we found the facts to be as follows: Yesterday a writ of habeas corpus had been issued by Judge Deady, commanding Lee You (probably the same as Lee Sue, the man killed) to produce the body of a Chinawoman named Yut Lue, at 1 o'clock P. M. to day, and show cause why he restrained her of her personal liberty. Later in the day the party who had sued out the writ of habeas corpus, filed an affidavit before Judge Deady, upon which the latter issued a warrant commanding Marshal Thos. G. Young to arrest the woman, You Que, and keep her in custody till the hour for the return to the habeas corpus. In the execution of this duty Mr. Young with James Allen, Deputy Marshal, went to the place where the women was kept in confinement and demanded her release. He served the warrant upon Lee You (or Lee Sue) who refused to obey it. Mr. Young directed Allen to keep guard at the front door, permitting nobody to pass in or out. There were several Chinamen then in the room. Mr. Young then bursted in a door, found the woman and took her into custody. As he reached the front room he was attacked by three or four of the Chinamen, prominent among whom was Lee You. The attack and struggle for the possession of the woman continued for some time. At length Mr. Young discovered that two or three powerful Chinamen had pinioned Mr. Allen's arms behind him, and at this moment Lee You and two or three others made a fresh and violent attack upon Mr. Young; whereupon he drew his pistol and fired, the ball taking fatal effect upon Lee You. The officers got away with the woman a moment afterward, the Chinamen being thrown into consternation and disorder by the fall of Lee You. An inquest was held on the body of the Chinaman and the following is the verdict of the jury:

We, the jury, summoned to inquire into the cause of the death of Lee Sub, now lying dead before us, upon hearing the testimony, find that the deceased came to his death from a shot from a pistol in the hand of Thomas G. Young, U. S. Marshal, in the discharge of his duty, the deceased having resisted him in endeavoring to rescue one Yut Que, against whom the said Thomas G. Young, U. S. Marshal, had a writ arrest, the said Yun Que being in his custody. T. H. Crawford, Foreman; Wm. Rickards, Fred. C. Congdon, Henry Abpel, John A. Blanchard, Louis Levin. Thomas J. Dryer, Coroner.

A CASE UNDER THE 13TH AMENDMENT.—A Chinaman in this city desires to marry. It is alleged that the young lady upon whom he has bestowed his affections, desires also to marry. It is further stated that the Celestial beau and the Celestial belle desire to marry each other. This state of things being natural and proper, would not be worth comment, except for the fact that there are grave difficulties in the way, which have led to the raising of an important question under the 13th amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Ah Quon owns the Chinese damsel in question, whose name is Yon Que. Ah Quon pledged or hired Yon Que to See Yon for $700. Han Que who is the plaintiff in the case, is the gentleman who desires to marry Yon Que, and Yon Que is the young lady who desires to marry Han Que. Lee You, an unchristian and hard-hearted heathen, holds Yon Que in custody, makes merchandise of her virtue, pockets the profits, and snaps his defiant fingers under the very nose of Han Que, the lover. Han Que heard of the 13th amendment—how, under it the shackles of servitude were knocked from off the bondmen and bondwomen of America, and how, under it, no mechanic has been since found, cunning enough to make such shackles stick again. Han Que employed an attorney and went for the 13th amendment. Yesterday an application was made to Judge Deady for a writ of habeas corpus, commanding Lee You and all other parties in interest, to appear before the Court and show cause why the damsel, Yon Que, is held in involuntary servitude, etc. The writ was issued and made returnable to-day. The case will be heard and a decision rendered on Monday next. Well, really, we are making progress when the Chinaman comes and goes for his rights and the rights of his oppressed brethren and sisters, under the 13th amendment. Mr. Theodore Burmester is attorney in this case for Han and the other Que.

COLUMBIA RIVER TRANSPORTATION COMPANY. This Company met at Columbia City according to previous notice, Sept. 18th, 1871, to discuss the propriety of building a suitable steamboat for the trade of the Columbia and Wallamet rivers. Whereupon, S. Bennett was called to the chair and Dr. C. G. Caples chosen Secretary. The object of the meeting was briefly stated by the Chairman, and the Constitution of the above named Company was read and accepted. The meeting then proceeded to the election of permanent officers, and a committee to canvass for capital stock to the Company, with the following result: C. H. Williams, of Columbia City, was elected President and Treasurer; Jos. Copeland, Vice President, and C. G. Caples, Secretary. The Committee consist of the following persons: L. L. Parrish, Jos. Copeland, C. G. Caples, Jas. Bell and Capt. Olson—the committee to receive ten per cent. of all moneys raised by them and to report at the next meeting to be held in the Court House in St. Helens on Saturday, Sept. 30th, at 11 o'clock, A. M. At the next meeting a full Board of Directors will be elected, and other business transacted. All are invited to attend the meeting. The meeting authorized a copy of the minutes of the meeting to be sent to the following papers for publication: Oregonian, Herald and Eclipse Beacon.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

S. BENNETT, Chairman.
C. G. CAPLES, Secretary.

RETURNED.—Miss Susan B. Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Duniway, arrived back from Walla Walla last evening, and will go to Albany to-day, where Miss Anthony will lecture this evening. Mr. Duniway informs us that the party had a very enjoyable trip, and that Miss Anthony's lectures, everywhere, were attended by good audiences. He attended the Walla Walla fair, a couple of days, and says of it that, though not an extensive exhibit, it was very creditable in respect of grain, fruits, etc. No rain had yet fallen east of the mountains, though much needed. The roads are extremely dusty and farmers are not able, in consequence of the dry and hard condition of the ground, to put in their crops. The first rain the party met with on their down trip was just above the Cascades.

NEW BOOKS.—The following new additions have been added to the Portland Library: The Pilgrims of Boston and Their Descendants, by Thomas Bridgman, author of Memorials of King's Chapel, with an introduction by Hon. Edward Everett, L. L. D.; Memoirs of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, vol. 5, containing the history of an expedition against Fort Du Quesne in 1775 under Major General Edward Braddock, Generalissimo of H. B. M. forces in America, edited from the original manuscripts by Winthrop Sargent, M. A., member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania.

THE STEAMER A. HAYWARD.—Mr. Gates, Chief Engineer of the O. S. N. Co., had steam up yesterday on the new steamer A. Hayward, to test the running condition of the engines. The machinery is powerful and of the very best quality. Everything, so far as tested, worked in the most satisfactory manner. The boat is about completed except as to the work to be done by the painters. They will need near three weeks yet in which to finish that part of the work, though it is expected a trial trip will be made some day this week.

BAD CROSSINGS.—The cross-walks on Fourth street, taken up to lay down the track of the railroad, have not been replaced, and the street is in an awful fix for pedestrians, especially after nightfall. The street fill stops the street drains and during a hard rain, large ponds of water are formed at all the street intersections. In behalf of its people living west of Fourth street, we suggest that the contractors or persons doing business in the should look after these things as soon as possible.

ANOTHER LOCOMOTIVE.—Another small locomotive, formerly belonging to the O. S. N. Co., arrived Monday evening, by the Co.'s new barge, in tow of the Oneonta. It was landed yesterday on the east side wharf, and will be used by the O. & C. Railroad Co.

OVERLAND PASSENGERS.—Passed Yreka, yesterday, by Oregon & California stage, bound for Oregon City or Portland: W. H. Roberts, S. T. Reed, Mrs. Bourne, T. Chatman, C. S. Silver, Mr. Bate, A. Charman, D. S. Nye.

PRINTING AND PUBLISHING INCORPORATION.

The following articles of incorporation were filed yesterday in the office of the County Clerk:

"The undersigned, Burrell B. Taylor, James H. Lappeus and Eugene Semple, hereby associate themselves together under the general incorporation laws of Oregon, under the following articles:

ART. I. The name hereby assumed by this corporation, and by which it shall be known, is the "Portland Printing and Publishing Company," and its duration shall be one hundred years.

ART. II. The business in which this Company proposes to engage is that of printing and publishing newspapers and conducting a general printing business in the city of Portland.

ART. III. The principal office and place of business of this Company shall be in the city of Portland, Oregon.

ART. IV. The capital stock of this Company shall consist of twenty thousand dollars, divided into four hundred shares of fifty dollars each."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Several emigrant families for Washington Territory and Eastern Oregon, have passed through the city within a day or two.

The case of Jell vs. Multnomah county, damages for personal injury, decided against the plaintiff and appealed to the Supreme Court, has been sent back for a new trial.

It is estimated that not less than $14,000 worth of musical instruments have been sold in this city within the last two months.

There was another fine rain yesterday and last night. It is doubtless a dampener upon the Linn county fair, but the effect upon the whole country will be most favorable, and we reckon the farmers are compatible.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GRAND CHAPTER.—We have received from A. G. Walling, Book and Job Printer, a copy of the "Proceedings of the M. E. Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Oregon, at its Eleventh Annual Convocation," held in the city of Portland, June 15, 1871." The book is printed upon fine tinted paper and is an admirable job typographically. In addition to the usual reports and lists of officers, it contains a long report from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence—T. McF. Patton, Chairman—embodying very many decisions and regulations of other Grand Chapters; extracts from the addresses of High Priests, proceedings of Grand Chapters, etc. This alone presents a very fair exhibit of the condition of this branch of the order in the United States.

A VALUABLE PRESENT.—Last evening, at a meeting of Multnomah Tribe No. 3, Independent Order of Red Men, an interesting presentation took place. The members of the Tribe had purchased an elegant regalia of a Past Sachem, made in Philadelphia, of fine fourlist silk velvet, elaborately mottled and trimmed with gold bullion, costing $75, and this they presented to Alexander Campbell, the first Past Sachem of the Tribe, as a testimonial of their regard for him as a man, member and officer. The present, aside from the value it has as a testimonial, is an elegant and very pretty thing. Coming as it did—the free-will offering of brethren—it is an article which Mr. Campbell may well highly prize and proudly wear.

THE CUSTOM-HOUSE.—Hitherto the work on this building has been greatly delayed by the failure of the contractors to furnish stone as rapidly as wanted by the builders. Gen. Holman, supervising architect, has been spending three or four of the last weeks at the quarry at Bellingham Bay; endeavoring to get the work going in such way as to avoid future delays, and he informs us that the stone will hereafter be ready at the quarry in sufficient quantities to meet the demand.

STEAMERS TO SAIL.—The steamship John L. Stephens will sail for San Francisco to-morrow at 7 o'clock, P. M.

The propeller George S. Wright will sail for San Juan, Nanaimo and Sitka on Sunday, October 1st.

The propeller California is advertised to sail for Puget Sound to-morrow at 7 P. M.

Old Things Have Passed Away.
This is at least true of the old method of treating the long abused and much abused human body. It is no longer considered wise to put a patient to the torture in order to cure him of a disease in which pain is already undermining the energies of his system. True science ranges itself on the side of nature, and endeavors to assist her in her fight against disease. This is the province of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most approved tonic ever advertised in this country. It may be recommended as a full medicine, par excellence; for it is in the fall that biliousness, dyspepsia and malarious fevers are especially prevalent. The frame, exhausted by the heats of summer, is relaxed and feeble at its close, and requires, we may say demands artificial assistance. Afford it that assistance in occasional doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the evils referred to may be escaped. Throughout the far west, and on the steaming alluvial of the Southern rivers, all the variation of periodical fever are probably rife to-day. Had a course of Hostetter's Bitters been commenced by the sufferers a month ago, i. e., before the unhealthy season set in, seven-eighths of them would in all probability be in their usual health at the present time. So much for want of forecast. So much for not keeping in the house, and using daily the best safeguard against epidemic and endemic fevers.

As flocks of impostors and imitators are trying to follow in the wake of the great American remedy, therefore be sure that the article you buy is genuine and verified by the proper trade marks. The true article can only be obtained in bottles. Beware of the spurious bitters sold by the gallon or in kegs.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, Sept. 26th 1871.

Gold in New York, 112.
Currency, buying 3c. selling, 5c.

A. B. Richardson & Co. will offer at their salesroom to-morrow (Wednesday) some desirable unmortgaged lots. Sale commences at 10 o'clock A. M.

The steamer Montana leaves San Francisco for this port to-morrow (Wednesday). The Montana is one of the best steamers belonging to the North Pacific Transportation Co.

The Britannia's cargo of Wheat has been secured. The only difficulty in connection with dispatch in the Railroad Company not having sufficient number of cars to bring the Wheat down. The parties from whom the Wheat was purchased wish to get cars put on to run daily for ten days to one point, and as soon as the Harrisburg bridge is completed with ten more to run daily from beyond that point. Twenty daily freight cars for one party, action from the requirements of other shippers, is more than the Company has at present to place on the line.

The steamer John L. Stephens will leave for San Francisco on Thursday evening.

The steamer George S. Wright will leave for Sitka and intermediate ports October 1st.

The steamer California will take her place on the route from here to Victoria and Sound ports, last of this week.

Steamer Montana leaves on Sunday, and will leave about Wednesday afternoon for San Francisco.

The Barracouta, with cargo of assorted merchandise, comes consigned to Messrs. Junior & Pender, to close the Golden Age, which is to leave at the last of this month from Liverpool with cargo of ted merchandise.

The Rice crop of Louisiana is estimated at 60,000 tons, or 117,000,000 pounds.

The Cotton crop now being gathered is estimated at 3,250,000 bales. If the weather is favorable the quality will be larger.

Late San Domingo advices report Sugar and Tobacco crop large. All the warehouses are overflowing with Tobacco, and quantities were piled up in the streets awaiting shipment.

The total production of Pig Iron in the United States in 1870 was 1,800,000 tons. In addition to which 200,000 tons was imported, almost exclusively from England—making the total consumption in the country 2,000,000 tons. The production and consumption of Pig Iron in the civilized world in 1870 is stated at 9,500,000 tons or 21,000,000,000 pounds.

We are informed that Isaac Friedlander, Esq., the large Portland merchant of Chinook, has no agent making purchases in this market. One of our largest buyers sold to Mr. Friedlander, and he has his head manager here to receive [illegible]. It is not his intention so far as we can learn, to enter the [illegible] unless he makes purchases by means of [illegible] known and responsible parties.

We were in error in stating that last year was the first year direct shipment was made to England. The Helen Angier was chartered by Messrs. McCraken & Co. to load Wheat for Liverpool, and sailed from here April 12, 1869, with a little over 900 tons of 2,240 lbs each. She arrived in Liverpool in September, 1869, and the Wheat brought the very highest market price. In June 1868, Messrs. J. McCraken & Co. chartered the Winifred to load with Wheat and Flour for Sidney, Australia, which sailed from here July 31st, 1868, and arrived Sidney in October following. The Sattie Brown was chartered by the same firm to load Wheat for Liverpool, and sailed from here Nov. 27, 1868, arriving at New York April 29, 1869. Her cargo was thrown on a falling market, and netted a handsome loss.

We are in receipt of Messrs. Patterson Bros. & Co.'s Liverpool circular of Sept. 15, (four days later than previously received) in which we extract:

Wheat—The week has been having again become the harvest work proceeds satisfactorily, and the prices for the week have been unsettled. A speculative excitement prevails that the crop will be very below an average. So we see no reason to apprehend a less product than 24 bushels to the acre, or an aggregate of 96,000,000 bushels, which, deducting 16,000,000 bushels for seed, would leave provided for 3,750,000 to 4,000,000 quarters. There has been quiet at former quotations, importers and millers being alike indifferent.

Flour—Has been in good request for the finer qualities, and some also freely taken, but medium and inferior brands neglected.

Indian Corn—Prices [illegible] that the supply keeps large both from America and European ports.

The above gives a larger estimate than was made by Mr. Sanderson in the London Times about the middle of last month, which he estimated the English yield at only 606,000 qrs. (Quarters are eight bushels.)

The receipts into Liverpool from September 1st, 1870, to August 31st, 1871, were: Wheat, 2,587,000 qrs; Corn, 1,097,227 qrs; Flour, 214,324 sks, 335,232 bbls.

The following is the average yield of France's cereals: 225,000,000 bushels Wheat; 83,000,000 bushels Rye; 50,000,000 bushels Barley; 140,000 bushels Oats, and 250,000,000 bushels Potatoes. At one time, earlier in the season, the [illegible] of the Wheat crop of France was that only half a crop would be harvested, but late mail advices give more favorable news, stating the crop would be fully two-thirds, but not of as good quality as last year. The [illegible] in this country fully confirms the last estimate (of a two-thirds crop), as it states the crop will be short 35,000,000 hectolitres. (4 hectolitres is equal to about 10¾ bu or 22½ bushels.) We have not been favored with late estimated amount of the surplus in Spain, which was estimated about two months ago, would allow of the [illegible] exportation 60,000,000 worth. Also, for several years past had to import Wheat to meet the home consumption.

Merchandise Report.

WHEAT—Tuesday's are free, and with more cars soon to be put on, together with increased length of road soon to be accomplished our receipts will be very large. The Hattie C. Bates and Orient are receiving considerable. Both had large lots when [illegible] on the John L. Stephens. We continue our yesterday's quotations, 92 1/2@ 2 20 per cental, with sacks, without sacks 1 [illegible] less.

FLOUR—There are several lots waiting shipment to Victoria and the Sound ports. There is no change in the market for Oregon, [illegible] shippers' view we cannot hear of any sales being effected for that market. Our miller [illegible] are holding their [illegible] considerable [illegible]. They will take very large invoices every year, supplying cargoes for several vessels, and our millers, now that they have got to be in the position of [illegible] under stood interest in the world, are [illegible] to establish their standing, thus living on an equal footing with California. We quote market at $5 per bbl for extra of standard brands, and $4 50@4 75 for superfine.

OIL MEAL CAKE—Jobbing at $30 per ton.

FEED STUFFS—Market very firm at [illegible] quotations. The advance in freight on the railroad and by the Columbia River to Kelly's Island, under an active fall demand to rule from at former quotations there with a strong upward tendency.

HIDES AND SKINS—The New York shipping List says: "The sales [illegible] of the week have been light for the season, just closed, [illegible], lean and heavier hold about 20c higher. Lyon and Skunk [illegible] Grey, Fisher, Marten, Fox, Otter, Beaver, and Mink, about the same as in the March, or Boston. Our dressing manufacturers are doing well, Wolf, Sleigh Robes [illegible] in better demand, and Mink goods still holding the front rank for elegance and durability. Buffalo Robes are plenty and cheap, and already selling freely at wholesale. The market is almost bare of raw stock, and prices tending upward."

BUTTER—The market for fresh roll is [illegible] in firkins, there have been liberal receipts for this season of the year. Chicago has been virtually supplying the California market, but by the advance in freight on the Central Pacific Railroad and the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. the market is very firmly held, with early advance expected. We quote our market at [illegible] 30 in firkins for extra choice. Fair to choice in rolls, 22@25c; in firkins, 20@22c ₱ lb.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ordinance No. 1065.

AN ORDINANCE TO AUTHORIZE THE CONstruction and operation of street railways in the city of Portland.

The city of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. That there be and hereby is granted unto Lewis Eaton the right and privilege to lay down and maintain an iron railroad track or tracks within the city of Portland, as follows, viz:

Along North First, First and South First streets; Fifth, North Fifth and South Fifth streets; B street, Washington street, Taylor street, Jefferson street and Hall street; and to operate and run cars thereon to be drawn as horse-motive power, and to convey for hire passengers and their luggage thereon.

Section 2. The said Lewis Eaton or his assigns, owner or owners of said railways shall plank, pave or macadamize as the municipal authorities shall direct; that portion of the street or streets along which their railways shall be laid, the whole length of the said railways, between the rails and for a width extending three feet on each side of the tracks; and keep the same constantly in repair.

Section 3. The tracks of said railways in those streets where double tracks shall be laid shall not be more than five feet apart between the rails, and shall be laid as nearly as possible in the middle of the street and flush with the pavement, so as to offer as little obstruction as possible to the crossing of vehicles; and where the lines crossing each other intersect, the rails shall be cut so as to permit the passage of cars, and to offer no obstruction to the free use of the street by the public.

Section 4. For the purpose of laying down or repairing such railway, no street shall be obstructed for a greater distance than the length of one block at any one time, nor for a longer period than ten working days, except that in case of excessive bad weather the Common Council may extend the time as to forsake its discretion.

Section 5. Cars shall be run upon such railway shall be of the most approved construction for the comfort and convenience of passengers, and shall be provided with brakes or other necessary appliances for stopping the same [illegible] be drawn by horses or mules and not otherwise; the rate of speed shall not exceed eight miles per hour, and any case of violation of this clause shall subject the owner or operator of the railway for a like [illegible] not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each offence, on conviction thereof before the Police Court. The rails to be used for the said railway shall be of good iron and of the most approved pattern in use for street railroads; the cars [illegible] shall run at all convenient hours of the day and night, for the accommodation of the public.

Section 6. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to obstruct the railway [illegible] provided for, either during the construction or the operation of the same, and any person or persons carelessly or wilfully violating the foregoing provision, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction before the Police Court shall be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding twenty days, or both, at the discretion of the Court, for each and every offence. Any conductor or other employe on the said railroad having charge of any passenger thereon, or other person on or about the cars belonging thereto, who shall by offensive, indecent, opprobrious or abusive language, insult, abuse or assault any passenger on the said cars, shall, on conviction thereof before the Police Court, be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars; or by imprisonment not exceeding twenty days, or both, at the discretion of the Court.

Section 7. The construction of the railways herein provided for shall be commenced within six months after the passage hereof, and the same shall be completed as follows:

The railway on North First, First, and South First streets, from the northern boundary of the city to the southern boundary thereof, on or before the first day of July, 1872; and the railway on B street from the intersection thereof with North First street to the west boundary of the city, on or before the first day of July, 1872. The railway shall be completed within one year after the passage hereof; and the railways upon at least one street running northerly and southerly, and on one street running easterly and westerly, shall be completed every year thereafter, until the railways on all streets named herein shall be completed; and in case the business of the city shall be extended at any time within fifteen years from the passage of this ordinance, by the direction, then the rights hereby conferred by the city upon said Eaton shall also extend to the limits so extended, and his or his successors in interest shall be required to extend their railway to the limits so extended as fast as the grading of the streets shall proceed.

Provided, That on or before the first of July, 1872, the said Lewis Eaton or his assigns shall give notice to the Common Council that the street railway running east and west, and the street running north and south, on which it is intended to construct the railways as herein provided, during the year next ensuing, the [illegible] of which notice and the railway so designated, shall be constructed within the said ensuing year, so far as the said street or streets shall be graded; and on or before the first of July, of each succeeding year thereafter, notice shall be given to the Common Council, designating the street or streets upon which the railway is to be constructed the next ensuing year as before, and, as in the case aforementioned, the railway or ways so designated, shall be constructed during the year ensuing the notice relative thereto, so far as the said street or streets shall be graded, until the entire system of railways provided for in this ordinance shall be completed.

And Provided further, That said railway, when laid down and completed upon any street or streets herein named, and as herein provided, shall be extended upon such street or streets, so far as the grade and portion of the street shall be extended; such extension of railway upon any street to correspond and to progress with the street improvements on said street.

Section 8. The said Lewis Eaton, his associates or assigns, shall forfeit his or their right or privilege accruing by virtue hereof as follows: On failing to commence the said railway within the time herein provided, or to complete the same within one year from the time the passage hereof on the streets named, on which the completion of each railway is provided for in Section 7 hereof, he or they shall forfeit all privileges granted hereby; and, in each case of notice given to the Common Council, as provided in Section 7, a failure to construct or complete the railways on the streets designated in such notices, as provided in said Section 7, shall work a forfeiture of all rights and privileges granted hereby, in such particular streets, but none others. A failure on the part of said Eaton or his assigns to give the notices to the Common Council, as provided in Section 7, or any of them, shall work a forfeiture of all streets upon which railway shall not be constructed at the time of such failure; and a failure by said Eaton or his assigns to lay down a track and complete the railway the whole length of any street on which the privilege is granted hereby, to extend the railway on any street as fast or as far as the said street shall be graded, shall work a forfeiture of all rights and privileges so far as that railway is concerned.

Section 9. Nothing in this ordinance granted privilege granted hereby, shall be construed to prevent the proper officers of the city from grading, paving, sewering, planking, macadamizing, improving, altering or repairing any of the streets over or upon which the privilege of constructing a railway is granted by this ordinance, or upon which any railway may be constructed under its provisions, but all streets shall be done so as to offer as little obstruction as possible to the passage of the cars, and the owner or owners of such railway shall have the privilege of raising or shifting the rails, so as to avoid as much as possible such obstruction during the progress of street repairing, improving or altering.

Section 10. The owners of said railways shall pay annually to the city of Portland, as a license upon each car run over by them on said railways, such sum, not exceeding fifty dollars, as shall be fixed by ordinances of the Common Council.

Section 11. The city of Portland shall have the right, by ordinance of the Common Council, to regulate the rate of fare to be charged in any railway constructed under the provisions hereof, Provided, That the rate to be charged shall not be reduced below six and one-fourth cents per mile, or fraction of a part of a mile, within the five years next ensuing the completion of the railway on the first street as named and provided for herein. Nor shall it ever be reduced below five cents on any one route beginning and ending on any one street, or fractional part thereof; and for the purposes hereof the railway on any street running parallel with the Willamette river shall be deemed one route from the northern boundary of the city to the southern boundary thereof; and in any street running at right angles to the river, the railway from First street to the western boundary of the city shall be considered one route.

Section 12. There shall be no double track railway laid under this ordinance upon any street that is less than eighty feet wide; and in operating such railways as shall be constructed under this ordinance, no car shall be allowed to stop more than one minute at any one time at intersections of streets, and any violation of the provisions of this section, shall subject the owner or owners of said railway to a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars for every offense upon conviction before the Police Court.

Section 13. The said Lewis Eaton and his assigns shall forfeit and be deemed to have abandoned all rights and privileges conferred by this ordinance, unless they shall within thirty days after the approval of this ordinance, file in the office of the Auditor and Clerk their written acceptance of the rights and privileges hereby conferred, subject to the terms, conditions and restrictions herein contained.
